

JOINT BASE SAN ANTONIO SUSTAINABLE ENERGY WORKSHOP
Pearl Stable, San Antonio, Texas July 12, 2011

REBECCA RANICH

Rebecca Ranich is Director, Federal Energy Management/Sustainability, Deloitte Consulting LLP and is the co-leader of Deloitte's Federal Energy Management/Sustainability initiative. She is an energy industry specialist with more than 20 years of related experience. Rebecca is skilled in energy project management and focuses on energy infrastructure investments, alternative and renewable energy deployment, climate change issues and project finance. Prior to joining Deloitte, Rebecca was involved in a number of major oil and gas pipeline projects in the Russian Federation. She began her career with the U.S. Library of Congress in Washington, D.C., as a Soviet Industrial Economics Analyst. Rebecca serves as an advisor to the President of the U.S. Association of Energy Economists on Renewable Energy topics and is a member of the Board of Directors of the Gas Technology Institute and the University of Pittsburgh Center for International Studies. Rebecca is a frequent speaker on alternative energy and infrastructure investments. She holds a master's degree in business administration from the University of Detroit with a concentration in international marketing and a bachelor's degree (Honors) in Russian and Eastern European studies from Northwestern University.